athe doath in Barre of Edward Chevaller Thursday morning The remainbrought here Friday morning and funeral was held Saturday mornwhere he had secured employ ment. He leaves, besides his wife, two children, Edward, Jr., and Miss Martha. An automobile owned by C. H. Stevens of Winooski was budly damaged between five and six o'clock Sunday morning opposite St. Michael's College at Witness Park. Fred Mead and Thomas McAvo were the only occupants of the car, with the former in the driver's seat. As they approached the college the machine which was without chains, began to skid on the frosty road and the rear of th car crashed into a telegraph pole, pulling down a mail box. The pole was broken in two and the automobile, a two-seater, it is said, had both of the rear wheel smashed and the axles badly bent. The oc empants of the car escaped injury. Mend is in the employ of the Stevens Machine company and very often this sum mer has driven his employer's car. The machine was later towed to the repair shops of the Stevens Machine company. A colored soldier of the 16th cavalry was Saturday evening placed in the lock up. He became mixed up with a chite man on the lower end cut the man's throat. Franklin started after his man with a jacknife in his hand and was restrained by bystanders. By this time a large crowd had gathered and the officers were approaching to the scene. Officer Barber and Special St. Amour appeared on the scene and made the arage. Officer St. Amour, in trying to take the knife away from the soldier, had one finger cut. Officer Wardwell arrested a foreigner residing here by the name of William Windro on Saturday night.
